YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

This duty requires you to tell the Insurer everything you know that is relevant to their decision to insure you and, if so, on what terms. A matter is relevant if you, or a reasonable person in the circumstances, would know it is relevant. You must tell the Insurer these things before cover is issued, and whenever you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a policy of Insurance.

You do not have to tell the insurer things that

1. Reduce the risk,
2. Are common knowledge
3. The insuree already knows or should know in the course of our business, or
4. The insurer indicates that they don't want to know.

If you don't tell the insurer everything that you know is relevant, they may

1. Refuse a claim
2. Reduce a claim payment or settlement, cancel your policy, or
3. In some cases, treat your policy as if it never existed.

The Duty of disclosure applies to every person that is insured by this policy.
